Gary Guller

Gary was leader of the most diverse team ever including those with physical challenges, to reach Everest Base Camp, After setting this world record, he went on to scale the peak, and became the first person with one arm to climb to the 29,035 ft. summit of Mt. Everest.

Later the next year, Gary led an expedition to the summit of the world's sixth highest mountain, Mt. Cho Oyu, located in Tibet at over 26,000 ft.

Gary uses his extraordinary experiences to share with his audiences the importance of equality, determination, team-work and integrity, and how these traits lead to personal and professional success.
